Identity

Identity is about positive traits; it also can be negative traits. It's a combination of things that you do; it's your talents, it's your strengths, it's your passions, it's what you love, it's what you care about.

Activities

In reflective journals, explain what identify means to them, as an individual.

Make a mixed media archive - collage who you are as a person.

Identity and Values.

What are our core values as an individual?

Give an insight into talents, strengths and passions.

Share the best feature of ourselves and why we love it being part of us.
