Protected characteristics

Human Rights apply to everyone.

Pride

- ▶ Pride is mostly about gender and identity.
- ▶ The message of Pride is that it is OK to be what you want to be.
- ▶ To dress how you want to dress.
- ▶ To act how you want to act.
- ▶ To love whoever you want to love.

Your identity

- ▶ The other main message of Pride is that you can be the kind of person you want to be.
- ▶ Wear what clothes you want.
- ▶ Enjoy the hobbies and interests you want.
- ▶ Have your hair how you want it.
- ▶ Be with the people you want to be with.

Why is Pride Even Necessary?

- ▶ Some people face discrimination because of their identity or who they want to experience love with.
- ▶ They might be bullied, excluded or not given a fair chance at things.
- ▶ This sort of behaviour is illegal, but it does happen.

Religion and Thoughts

- ▶ Some people believe that it is not OK for men or boys to show characteristics that are traditionally seen as female.
- ▶ And the other way around.
- ▶ This is a view of some religions. That religious view is fine. Remember everyone is entitled to their own religion and thoughts.
- ▶ But... the law in countries which have signed up to the charter of Human Rights is that you cannot discriminate.
- ▶ This works to protect everyone. Remember it protects people's thoughts and religions too.

Parkdale/Transform Values

- ▶ We treat everyone with respect and kindness, whatever our differences and beliefs.
- ▶ We act with kindness and understanding
- ▶ We do not use language that might upset others or make them feel bad about themselves.
- ▶ We care about equality; that people have equal opportunities and all are treated in the best way.

British Values

- ▶ We show mutual respect.
- ▶ We value individual liberty.
- ▶ We are tolerant of difference.

KINDNESS IS ALWAYS THE ANSWER

"I believe that in the end it is kindness and generous accommodation that are the catalysts for real change" – Nelson Mandela
